3.1.1

To be taken up: 3 credits so that the total of the minor amounts to (at least) 27 credits. This elective can consist of both a graduation course component, an additional course component from the other minor, or a course component from the study programme offered by Ghent University (including university-wide electives). After approval by the faculty.

3.2

To be taken up: 27 credits consisting of 23 or 24 credits from the list below and respectively 4 or 3 credits from 3.2.1 elective courses. With reference to the list below: the course units with reference a and at least one course unit with reference b are the ideal preparation for the inclusion of the subject didactics of Dutch as a non-native language (NT2) in the educational master's programme.

With regard to the elective courses (see 3.2.1): this choice can consist of both a graduation course component, an additional course component from a minor, or a course component from the study offer of UGent (including university-wide electives).
