Extra information on the examination methods

PE: Written exam: grammar and vocabulary; reading skills of a new text; writing of a short text.

PE: Oral exam: small talk conversation, comment on a text or an aspect of the Portuguese culture.

NPE: continuous assessment, comprising three different evaluations of grammar and vocabulary: writing, listening, group presentation.

NPE: Presence during lectures is obligatory.

During evaluation a correction key is used which is attuned for all Portuguese language proficiency courses.

Students who do not take part in the assessment of one or more parts of the course evaluation cannot pass the course. Should the average mark be higher than 10/20, the final mark will be reduced to the highest non-pass mark (= 9).

Calculation of the examination mark

80% periodical evaluation, 20% non-periodical.

- Periodical evaluation: written exam (65%) and oral exam (15%)
- Non-periodical evaluation: 3 intermediary tests on grammar and vocabulary (listening, speaking, writing), participation (tasks).

Facilities for Working Students

- 1 Student attendance during educational activities is required.
- 2 Possible rescheduling of an oral and written examination to a different time in the same academic year.
- 3 Individual feedback can be given online.
