Course content-related study coaching

- In the practical language acquisition classes all theoretical knowledge is immediately put into practice. These classes consist of reading, conversation, listening, and written exercises. Immediate feedback is possible in the conversation exercises. The written exercises are corrected by the language teacher or during class and – if necessary – discussed with the individual student. This guarantees a quick feedback for the individual student.
- The lecturers can be contacted at the specified hours for further reference and/or clarification.
- Interactive support via Minerva (forums, e-mail).

Extra information on the examination methods

Periodic evaluation:

- Oral examination: test of listening and speaking skills about an advanced topic, the reading of literary texts with a series of open (subject matter and context) and closed (grammar) questions.

Permanent evaluation:

- Participation: active participation during exercises, making homework.
- Portfolio

If a student does not pass the periodic and permanent evaluation, a second chance is offered by means of an exam during the second exam period. If participation is insufficient, a replacement task will be given. It is however preferable that students participate in the course of the academic year.

Calculation of the examination mark

Oral exam: 40%. Participation: 10%. Portfolio and assignments on Ufora : 50 %. The students have to succeed in all parts.

Students who do not take part in the assessment of one or more parts of the course evaluation or obtain a mark of less than 10/20 for one of its parts cannot pass the course evaluation. Should the average mark be higher than 10/20, the final mark will be reduced to the highest non-pass mark (= 9).

Facilities for Working Students

1. Student attendance during educational activities is required.
2. The examination can be rescheduled.
3. Feedback can be given by email, telephone or during an appointment during office hours.
