Modern Japanese

Position of the course

This advanced course shows students how to analyze and use the basic structures of the modern Japanese standard language (hyojungo). The course gives them the elementary vocabulary of the modern Japanese standard language (speaking, reading, writing, understanding) and helps them understand and have basic conversations with a native speaker in the modern Japanese standard language. The course introduces them to the various politeness levels of the Japanese language. Students learn how to read and write the essential joyo kanji of modern written Japanese and how to translate general texts (Japanese-Dutch, Dutch-Japanese).

Contents

The student's knowledge of vocabulary and grammar of the modern Japanese standard language is expanded by means of short texts and dialogues. The student is also familiarized with various levels of politeness, including futsutai. The essential joyo kanji are introduced and students learn to read and translate general texts written in Modern Japanese. Also, contemporary societal topics such as gender, sustainability, and environment are addressed

Teaching methods

Seminar, Lecture, Independent work

Extra information on the teaching methods

- Lectures: 1.5 hours of theory a week is provided. The teaching of the theory (vocabulary, grammar) is done by the lecturer.
- Seminars: Class exercises are presented by co-lecturers and deal with practicing and applying the theory under guidance. The students are trained in speaking, listening, reading and writing skills. Basic dialogues and simple conversations are trained by means of role plays.
- Independent work: The students also receive a portfolio that has to be made individually. A test on grammar and writing will be held every week.
