Position of the course

After Swahili, students are taught a second Afrikan language, namely Lingala.

Contents

After information on the history and sociolinguistic history of Lingala, actually spoken Lingala (as opposed to missionary-colonial designed Lingala) is taught, more in particular the Kinshasa regiolect, as this is the most influential. Learning is achieved through a profound mixture of theory and exercises: through conversationbased language-structural explanations, the basics of the pronunciation, phonology, morphology, syntax, and lexicon is explained.

Initial competences

It is recommended to have passed Inleiding tot de Afrikaanse Taalkunde and Taal, Cultuur en Samenleving in Afrika, or to have acquired the equivalent competences. If this is not the case, the student is required to contact the responsible professor prior to the beginning of the academic year.

Final competences

To have knowledge of the history and the sociolinguistics of Lingala and to have acquired a first basic knowledge of its vocabulary, phonology, morphology and syntax.

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is determined after successful competences assessment

Conditions for exam contract

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Written assessment

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Oral assessment, Participation

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment examination during the second examination period is not possible

Calculation of the examination mark

30% non-periodical

70% periodical

Combination of permanent evaluation (participation, oral assessments, exercises: 30% of the final mark) and periodic evaluation (written exam, i.e. 70% of the final mark). A second exam is not possible for the non-periodical assessment: in the resit examination period the same mark applies that was obtained in the first examination period. The periodical assessment can be redone. If a student does not participate in or fails for the assessment of one component (non-periodical or periodical), passing the course unit as a whole is not possible. If the total score turns out to be a mark of 10 or more out of twenty, this is reduced to the highest fail mark (9/20).
