Teaching languages

Lingala, Dutch

Keywords

Lingala, African languages, Central Africa

Position of the course

Advanced course following up on Lingala III

Contents

The goal is to complement and deepen the skills and the lexical and grammatical knowledge acquired in Lingála III.

Initial competences

The student has successfully completed Lingála III.

Note: The four Lingala courses (I through IV) must be taken consecutively. That is, students must take Lingala II in the academic year and semester immediately following Lingala I, Lingala III in the semester immediately following Lingala II, and Lingala IV in the academic year and semester immediately following Lingala III. In other words, there can be no gap between successive language levels. This applies both to UGent pathway students and to students who choose the Afrikasemester. During a transition period, exceptions may be requested individually from the professor responsible for the course.

Final competences

The student has a broad knowledge of lexicon, phonology, morphology and syntax of Lingála, as well as of its idiomaticity.

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is determined after successful competences assessment

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract

Teaching methods

Seminar

Extra information on the teaching methods

Possibly 'excursions' (Fedasil) as well, and/or digital competences through translations of Lingála graphic novels.

Explanation 'excursions': if these excursions were not possible in Lingala III, Lingala IV will comprise trips to Fedasil in Brussels, where the students practice conversational skills with Congolese asylum seekers who are native speakers of Lingala. The aim is to enable students to combine language acquisition with concrete social engagement outside the university's walls. If the cooperation with Fedasil cannot continue for logistical reasons or if these sessions were already done in Lingala III, this part will be canceled.

Classes are not recorded.

Assessment moments

end-of-term and continuous assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the first examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Participation

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment examination during the second examination period is not possible

Calculation of the examination mark

50% non-periodical/continuous assessment

50% periodical/end-of-term assessment

A second exam is not possible for the continuous assessment: in the resit examination period the same mark applies that was obtained in the first examination period.

The end-of-term assessment can be redone.

If students does not to participate in, or fails for, one of the two components (non-periodical or periodical), passing the course unit as a whole is no longer possible. If the total score does turn out to be a mark of 10 or more out of twenty, this is reduced to the highest fail mark (9/20).
