

Exchange Programme Global Studies and World Societies	5	A
Exchange Programme History	5	A
Elective Set Southeast-European Language	5	A

Teaching languages

English

Keywords

Byzantium, Late Antiquity, Middle Ages, Middle-East, Eastern Christianity, Crusades, Eastern Europe

Position of the course

This course gives the students a survey of the history of the Eastern Roman Empire from Diocletian to the fall of Constantinople in 1453, and it complements the courses 'History of Classical Antiquity' and 'History of the Middle Ages'.

Contents

The students will learn the main outlines of the history of Byzantium and acquire the necessary framework of structures, names, and concepts needed to understand the most important evolutions in Byzantine history.

Initial competences

General knowledge of the history of Classical Antiquity and the Middle Ages
Good command of the English language

Final competences

- 1 To have a firm knowledge of the most important historical facts and interpretations
- 2 To be able to explain the main concepts, structures, changes, and historiographical problems, and to situate them on a long term perspective.
- 3 To show familiarity with the sources of Byzantine history and to be able to recognise, discuss, and critically evaluate them.

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is unrestricted: the student takes into consideration the conditions mentioned in 'Starting Competences'

Conditions for exam contract

Access to this course unit via an exam contract is unrestricted

Teaching methods

Seminar, Lecture, Independent work

Extra information on the teaching methods

Every class (except the introductory class) consists of two parts lecture, with integrated sources seminar.

Study material

Type: Handbook

Name: Timothy E. Gregory, A History of Byzantium, Blackwell, Oxford 2005

Indicative price: € 30

Optional: no

Type: Slides

Name: Slides

Indicative price: Free or paid by faculty

Optional: no

Type: Reader

Name: Extracts from sources

Indicative price: Free or paid by faculty

Optional: no

References

Handbook: Timothy E. Gregory, A History of Byzantium, Blackwell, Oxford 2005.

Sources will be handed out in due time

Course content-related study coaching

Interactive support via Ufora; personal meetings with the instructors

Assessment moments

end-of-term and continuous assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the first examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Participation

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment examination during the second examination period is possible

Extra information on the examination methods

1) Weekly preparation of questions and remarking regarding the source material, with active discussion during class.

2) Oral exam consisting of three main questions aiming at testing the acquisition of the following skills and knowledge: broad knowledge of historical events, insight into concepts/evolutions/historiographical problems, discussion of sources.

Do note that both lectures and examination will take place in English.

Calculation of the examination mark

Final exam: 16/20

Ongoing evaluation: 4/20

Facilities for Working Students

To be discussed with the instructors