Position of the course

This course unit is part of the advanced master in linguistics (ManaMa Linguistics). It is also an optional course in the master of teaching (educatieve master).

Exchange students may take up this course unit, for which no prior knowledge of Dutch is required.

Contents

This course consists of different modules.

- Writing a research report & conducting a literature review
 - Data collection measures for second language acquisition (SLA), language teaching and language learning research
 - Designing a quantitative study
 - Designing a qualitative study; mixed-methods research
 - Corpus-based research methods and learner corpora in SLA research
 - Sensitive measures in research on language learning: eye-tracking, reaction times and EEG
- Each module consists of theory, analyses of recently published research, exercises and group discussions.

The module "sensitive measures in research on language learning" is optional for students in the master of teaching (educatieve master). They are not expected to fulfill the assignment that belongs to this module.

(They follow this course for 5 ECTS-credits instead of 6.)

Initial competences

Final competences

- 1 Distinguish between different types of studies, designs and data collection measures in research on SLA.
- 2 Formulate research questions in the field of second/foreign language acquisition.
- 3 Understand challenges and ethical aspects involved in data collection
- 4 Select appropriate quantitative data collection techniques in function of a research question in the field of SLA.
- 5 Select appropriate qualitative data collection techniques in function of a research question in the field of SLA.
- 6 Design a study (quantitative, qualitative, mixed methods) on topics in SLA.
- 7 Know the structure of a research report.
- 8 Being able to justify and evaluate research methods in terms of adequacy and limitations.

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is unrestricted: the student takes into consideration the conditions mentioned in 'Starting Competences'

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract

Teaching methods

Seminar, Independent work, Peer teaching

Extra information on the teaching methods

Students follow lectures and prepare assignments in Ufora. Learning modules are available which consist of theory and assignments. Learners receive feedback during interactive sessions.

Students prepare exercises in class (individually or in small groups) and present the results.

Students prepare a short presentation on a selected article.

Students can take online quizzes in Ufora (with immediate feedback in Ufora).

Learning materials and price

The learning materials and corresponding exercises are available via the online learning platform (presentations, activities, reader).

Assessment moments

end-of-term and continuous assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the first examination period

Oral assessment open-book

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Oral assessment open-book

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Participation, Assignment

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment examination during the second examination period is possible

Extra information on the examination methods

Continuous assessment based on participation in the response lecture (preparing assignments, input, attendance) and oral assessment (open book) based on exercises.

Calculation of the examination mark

- Continuous assessment: 30 % assignment and participation (presence in class is therefore highly recommended)
- Oral presentation: 10%
- Exam: 60%

Facilities for Working Students

- Mogelijkheid tot vrijstelling van aanwezigheid voor bepaalde onderdelen met vervangende opdrachten. Voor een aantal lesmomenten is aanwezigheid vereist.
