Position of the course

This advanced course teaches students how to analyse and use the basic structures of the modern Japanese standard language (hyōjungo). It helps them master the elementary vocabulary of the modern Japanese standard language (speaking, reading, writing, understanding) and to understand and have simple conversations with a native speaker in the modern Japanese standard language. The course teaches students to read and write the elementary characters (kanji) of modern written Japanese. Students are expected to be able to translate texts of an elementary level (Japanese-Dutch, Dutch-Japanese).

Contents

This course offers an introduction to the basic grammar and elementary vocabulary of the modern Japanese standard language. By means of basic dialogues that handle situations of everyday life, the general polite formal spoken language (teineita) is analysed and taught. The students are being familiarized with the two syllabic phonetic writing systems and also with the elementary Sino-Japanese characters.

Initial competences

To have successfully completed the course Modern Japanese I or to have acquired the necessary skills by other means.

Final competences

- 1 To have elementary oral and written knowledge of the Japanese language.
- 2 To be able to make elementary translations from Dutch to Japanese and vice versa.
- 3 To be able to apply elementary knowledge of grammatical analysis.
- 4 To be able to analyse and use the basic structures of the modern Japanese standard language (hyōjungo).

- 5 To master the elementary vocabulary of the modern Japanese standard language (speaking, reading, writing, understanding).
