Position of the course

This basic course wants to provide a basic knowledge and insight into the history and theory of the interior and design in western Europe.

Contents

The course provides an overview of the history of the interior, design and crafts in Western Europe from the Middle Ages until now. The course proposes an integral approach, focusing on the design, function and meaning of the interior and the applied arts. It deals with aspects such as living habits, floor- and wall coverings, furniture, utensils and decorative objects. The emphasis is on the domestic interior and the period after c. 1750. Attention is also paid to theoretical and methodological aspects, and to the history and topicality of this field of study.

Initial competences

- Basic knowledge of the history of the fine arts and architecture
- Passive knowledge of French, English and German

Final competences

- 1 To have a basic knowledge and insight into the history and theory of interiors and design/crafts.
- 2 To have a basic knowledge and insight into the history and actual relevance of the discipline of interior and design history, and its methods.
- 3 To be able to recognize and situate the main historical styles.
- 4 Develop attention and sensibility for this matter and its related problems in daily life (e.g. sustainability, heritage,...).
