Extra information on the examination methods

Students are required to hand in weekly homework exercises, which count for 20% of the final grade. Students are required to give a presentation, which counts for 10% of the final grade. The remaining 70% consists of the final exam. A minimum of 10/20 for both periodical and non-periodical evaluation is required. Non-periodical evaluation cannot be repeated in the second exam period. Students who repeat the periodical examination keep the same grade for the non-periodical evaluation.

Calculation of the examination mark

70% periodical (exam), 30% non-periodical (homework exercises and presentation)

Facilities for Working Students
