

Methodology: Preparation to Master's Dissertation (A005392)

Course size (nominal values; actual values may depend on programme)

Credits 5.0

Study time 150 h

Course offerings and teaching methods in academic year 2024-2025

A (semester 1)

Dutch

Gent

group work

peer teaching

seminar

independent work

Lecturers in academic year 2024-2025

Dikova-Milanova, Miglena

LW21

staff member

Geerardyn, Tilde

LW21

staff member

Moravcevic, Slobodanka

LW21

staff member

Petric Lasnik, Ivana

LW21

staff member

Dhooge, Ben

LW21

lecturer-in-charge

Stern, Dieter

LW21

co-lecturer

Troch, Pieter

LW21

co-lecturer

Yudin, Aleksey

LW21

co-lecturer

Offered in the following programmes in 2024-2025

Master of Science in Teaching in Languages(main subject East European Languages and Cultures)

crdts

5

offering

A

Master of Arts in East European Languages and Cultures

5

A

Teaching languages

Dutch

Keywords

Research (design, presenting, reviewing, ...), Master's thesis, Slavic and East European Studies

Position of the course

This third and last of the three methodology courses builds on the skills acquired through the Methodology I and II. The students fine-tune their research skills and further refine themselves in methods and aspects of Slavic and East European Studies as a scholarly discipline or conglomerate of scholarly disciplines. The students deepen their knowledge of the methods from the area of the master's thesis research. Through this guided series of individual and group assignments the student perfect themselves in terms of research. Thus, this course is the ultimate preparation for the Master thesis.

Contents

Guided seminars aimed at having the students - in mutual discussion with their peers - to formulate a research question, to choose an appropriate research method and to design the Master's thesis.

One-on-one workshops with the supervisor, aimed at demarcating the research topic and elaborating a fitting research strategy.

To prepare the research for the Master's thesis on an independent basis.

To further qualify in communicating their own research and the research carried out by others in different languages.

Initial competences

To have successfully completed the courses Methodology I and II or to have acquired the necessary skills by other means.

Final competences

- 1 To conduct research under limited supervision and on an independent basis.
- 2 To devise en set up original scholarly research under limited supervision and in reflection with others.
- 3 To have and to acquire specialized knowledge of the method(s) of Slavic and East European Studies required to carry out the Master's thesis.
- 4 To reflect critically and constructively, and to communicate in Dutch and the target languages the specific methods of and research in Slavic and East European Studies.
- 5 To acquire and apply the basics of data management
- 6 To put the earlier acquired knowledge of the target languages into productive use in specific scientific contexts.
- 7 To present one's own research in oral and written form, in Dutch and in the target languages.
- 8 To formulate feedback on the research process by peers in a constructive manner and in open dialogue, in Dutch and in the target languages.
- 9 To adopt a critical attitude towards issues of scientific integrity.

Conditions for credit contract

This course unit cannot be taken via a credit contract

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract

Teaching methods

Group work, Seminar, Independent work, Peer teaching

Extra information on the teaching methods

Seminars: guided seminars aimed at having the students - in mutual discussion with their peers - to define a problem and to formulate a fitting research question(s) and objectives; to choose an appropriate theoretical frame and dito research method; to design the Master's thesis (MA project proposal); to acquire the necessary presentation skills..

One-on-one workshops with the supervisor, aimed at demarcating the research topic and elaborating a fitting research strategy (independent work).

Study of scholarly literature; MA project proposal; an abstract on the thesis in a Slavic language; a presentation on the conducted research in Dutch; 2 peer review reports, one in Dutch, one in a Slavic language.

Group work: seminars with peers; peer review reports.

Study material

None

References

Course content-related study coaching

Since the course is taught in the form of seminars and one-on-one workshops and several meetings with the supervisor are planned, quick feedback is possible.

Assessment moments

continuous assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the first examination period

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Presentation, Peer and/or self assessment, Assignment

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment examination during the second examination period is possible in modified form

Extra information on the examination methods

Non-periodical evaluation:

- MA proposal
- Abstract of the MA thesis in a Slavic language
- Presentation of the research proposal
- 2 peer review reports (1 in Dutch, 1 a Slavic language)

If the student does not pass the non-periodical evaluation, a second chance is offered through

(Approved)

assignments - in altered form - between the first and second exam period.

Calculation of the examination mark

Non-periodical evaluation: 100%

- MA proposal (50%)
- Abstract of the MA thesis in a Slavic language (20%)
- Presentation of the research proposal (15%)
- 2 peer review reports (1 in Dutch, 1 a Slavic language) (15%)

Facilities for Working Students

Attendance is required to successfully complete the course.

Possibility of feedback at a different time: please make an appointment.