Position of the course

This intermediate course is the continuation of Arabic Language Acquisition I. This course aims to further perfect the acquisition of Arabic reading, writing and listening skills in specific Media contexts. In Egyptian Arabic, the further acquisition of speaking and listening skills within specific contexts is central.

Contents

This course consists of two components: Media Arabic and Egyptian Arabic.

- In the Media Arabic component (fuṣḥā l-ilām), the student is further familiarized with the current affairs of the Arabic media through semi-authentic and authentic texts. In addition to the most common expressions and vocabulary from the media, more specific, context-related language expressions are also discussed, from the perspective of language acquisition as well as from some form of contextualisation.
- In the Egyptian Arabic (al-amiyya al-maṣriyya) component, the emphasis is mainly on further practice and consolidation of speaking and listening skills. The student learns to tell about, describe and inquire about events and actions in the past, present and future. The student learns to make and postpone an appointment, to apologize, and to formulate his opinion. The student also learns how to formulate a complaint and ask for help. The health context is also discussed. Attention is paid to less obvious idiomatic expressions and speaking skills. Finally, attention is also paid to current social themes, including through film and music.

Extra information on the examination methods

Written and oral exam (organised separately for each component):

- Written exam = reading, writing MA (+ voc.&grammar)
- Oral exam = speaking EA (+ voc.&grammar)

Participation, skills test (organised separately for each component):

- active and consistent participation during classes
- assignments and tasks (listening MA & EA / vocabulary& grammar MA & EA)

Calculation of the examination mark

Media Arabic 50%

Egyptian Arabic 50%

Both components are subdivided according to skills into end-of-term evaluation and continuous assessment (active participation during classes, and tests and assignments).

Students who do not participate in (one of the skills-related parts of) the assessment, or have a mark below 10/20 for one of the skills-related parts (MA reading, MA writing, EA speaking, MA listening, EA listening, MA vocab&grammar, EA vocab&grammar), automatically fail the entire course. Final marks higher than 10/20 will, in this case, be reduced to the highest mark that does not qualify for automatic upgrade ('deliberation') (7/20).

A pass mark for one of the skills-related parts means that the assessment of that part does not need to be retaken in case of a resit (only!). Students are nevertheless free to decide to retake it.

Facilities for Working Students
