Position of the course

This advanced course wants to provide a thorough knowledge of Portuguese, an introduction to non-European language varieties and further acquaintance with the Portuguese-speaking culture.

Exchange students may take this course. It does not require knowledge of Dutch.

Contents

This course aims to improve the active knowledge of the Portuguese grammar and lexicon, as well as the language proficiency through exercises on listening, reading and speaking. All of this is situated in the cultural context of Portugal and the Portuguese speaking countries. Envisaged level of language proficiency: B2/C1.

The following grammatical topics are studied: the Imperfeito do Conjuntivo, complex verb tenses, use of prepositions with particular verbs.

Students engage in communicative exercises that will lead to an advanced use of both written and spoken Portuguese.

The following cultural topics are studied: the complex nature of lusofonia, economy (coffee, cacao, oil and ecology), political landscapes, music and architecture.

Initial competences

To have successfully completed Advanced Portuguese I or have acquired the necessary skills by other means. Expected level of language proficiency at the start of the course: B2.

Final competences

- 1 To actively command the normative grammar, a.o. the use of tenses and moods in context and pronouns.
- 2 To have the necessary lexical knowledge to express oneself correctly in Portuguese (both orally and in written form) in everyday contexts.
- 3 To be able to read simple contemporary literary texts in Portuguese.
- 4 To be acquainted with specific cultural elements of the Portuguese speaking societies.

5 Advanced use of Portuguese in specific contexts, written and spoken.
