Position of the course

This course is one of the research seminars that constitute the core of the master programme. Depending on initial qualifications, students enroll for three or five such research seminars.

Contents

Immanuel Kant's thinking and the philosophers influenced by him underlie this research seminar. We focus primarily (but not exclusively) on Kant's philosophy, 19th-century German philosophy, neo-Kantianism and other philosophers inspired by Kant. Based on the lecturers' rich expertise, the students learn how to make a sound, well-founded and constructive contribution to research on Kant and post-Kantian philosophy.

Initial competences

Knowledge of Kant and Post-Kantian Philosophy at intermediate level.
Competent in philosophical writing and argumentation.

Final competences

- 1 Ability to formulate original and innovative research problems based on the duly founded insight into the internationally recognised state-of-the-art in the domain of Kant and Post-Kantian Philosophy.
- 2 Ability to develop original solutions to the selected research problems and argue for them clearly and convincingly.
- 3 Ability to deepen one's knowledge of the research domain independently.
- 4 Ability to report on research orally in a clearly-understood manner.
