Position of the course

The study unit "Russian: Grammar I" teaches students basic knowledge and skills, which they will later learn to apply in a broader context in "Russian: Language Practice I" and "Russian: Language Practice II" and which will be extended in "Russian: Grammar II". The students develop knowledge about, and insight into, Russian morphology and the basic principles of case usage and the verb system. Drilling exercises and grammatical translation are used to consolidate the newly acquired subject material.

Contents

The study unit "Russian: Grammar I" (RIGI) covers the following items:

- morphology:
 - the various declensions of the noun, adjective and pronoun in the singular;
 - the various conjugations of the verb;
 - aspects, tenses and grammatical modes;
- basic use of case, aspect and tenses.

Initial competences
