Position of the course

During this introductory language course, students with prior knowledge of Russian will learn the basics of Ukrainian phonetics, vocabulary and grammar.

Contents

The focus is on comparative phonetics, morphology and syntax Ukrainian - Russian as well as on the Ukrainian verb system and the morphology of numerals and pronouns, basic vocabulary and simple colloquial expressions. The different forms of language use - reading, listening, speaking and writing - play an important role in this course. Receptive skills - reading and listening - are further developed on the basis of authentic written and spoken texts on various topics. The productive skills - speaking and writing - are trained through oral resp. written assignments for the texts mentioned. In all language lessons, we work on actively expanding vocabulary.

The aim of the course is to achieve level A1 (active language use) / A2 (passive language use) of the European reference framework.

Initial competences

Having successfully completed the course "Russian: Language and Text II" or "Russian Language Structures C" and "Russian Language Practice D" (VTC) or having acquired the intended competencies in another way.

Final competences

- 1 Have a basic knowledge of Ukrainian grammar and apply it; know the grammatical terminology (grammar).
- 2 Understanding texts that mainly consist of high-frequency and everyday words (reading).
- 3 Use simple expressions and sentences to discuss everyday topics. Participate in a simple conversation, ask and answer simple questions on familiar topics (speaking).
- 4 Global understanding of not too difficult, not fast spoken texts in Ukrainian. Finding information in simple narrative and informative texts (listening).
- 5 Knowing and being able to apply the Ukrainian spelling rules (orthography).
- 6 Write a short, simple text, both by hand and on the computer. (to write).

7 Through language you also get to know culture in the broadest sense of the word.

examination during the second examination period is possible in modified form

Extra information on the examination methods

The student's progress is evaluated on a regular basis through interim tests, tasks and assignments. If the student has missed a written or oral test due to demonstrable, serious circumstances (e.g. illness), he/she will be given the opportunity to take this test; If there are no demonstrable, compelling reasons, he/she will not be given that opportunity.

Calculation of the examination mark

Periodic evaluation (70%):

The exam consists of:

- a written part (grammar, reading skills, listening skills, writing skills);
- an oral part (speaking skills).

Non-periodical evaluation (30%):

interim tests, tasks and assignments.

The passed marks from the non-periodical or periodic evaluation are transferred to a possible second examination period. If you have not passed, you will be given the opportunity to retake the components (NPE and/or PE) for which you did not pass. For the NPE it is only possible in the modified form.

Facilities for Working Students

1. Attendance is mandatory for a number of teaching moments (tests).
2. No possibility to take an exam at a different time.
3. Possibility of feedback at another time: by appointment.
