Keywords

Spanish, language proficiency, grammar

Position of the course

This course has a theoretical and a practical component that both build on the contents of Language Proficiency I. The theoretical module is devoted to specific topics of the Spanish grammar, with emphasis on the modes of the verb. In the practical sessions, students learn to use the language, both orally and in writing, through a communicative approach. The course also seeks to help them to acquire a Spanish vocabulary on an intermediate level. Level of the Common European Framework of Reference for languages : B1.

Contents

This course covers the following aspects of the language: * Grammar: tenses and modes of the verb; the use of prepositions; gerund construction; passives and verbal periphrasis * Vocabulary level B1 * Listening comprehension * Speaking comprehension * Reading comprehension * Writing comprehension

Initial competences

Students must have attended the class Spanish Language Proficiency I or have acquired an adequate language level by other means. Expected language level at the start of the course: A1/A2.

Final competences

- 1 A good command of Spanish grammar and syntax and an ability to use tenses and modes correctly.

examination during the second examination period is possible in modified form

Extra information on the examination methods

The final grade will be based on: 1) a written exam with questions on conjugation, vocabulary and grammar. The exam covers the syllabus and the vocabulary; 2) the permanent evaluation, which consists of a series of tests on vocabulary and grammar, reading comprehension, writing skills, communication skills (dialogues). Presence during the lectures, tests and conversation workshops is obligatory. Calculation of the examination mark: Final exam: 60% Tests: 40% All students are obliged to take part in the continuous assessment (oral and written) in order to pass in the first exam period. If they don't, they can't pass the course evaluation. Should the average mark nevertheless be higher than 10/20, the final mark will be reduced to the highest non-pass mark (= 9). If students are legitimately absent for one or more tests of the ongoing evaluation, they must overtake them at a fixed time during the overtaking week in order to pass the first exam period. In second session students will have to take an altered exam which allows to test the contents and skills of the written exam as well as the continuous assessment.

Calculation of the examination mark periodical evaluation (written exam): 60%

non-periodical evaluation: 40%

Attendance during tests, lectures and conversation workshops is obligatory.
