Teaching languages

Italian

Keywords

Italian literature, history of ideas, aesthetics of reception, intertextuality, historicism, transnational literary history, international circulation of literature.

Position of the course

Advanced course that aims to provide students the knowledge and skills to understand Italian literature, culture and history, to analyse them autonomously and to explain them at an academic level.

Contents

The aim of the course is to analyze fundamental themes of two canonical authors in Italian literary history, one from the early modern period and one from the modern period. Specifically, the course focuses on how literary texts of two different authors engage in dialogue with each other and their respective times. Critical studies devoted to both authors and the relationship between them will be also considered.

In-depth analysis of

- Part 1 = Giacomo Leopardi's style and literary, philosophical and anthropological theories through some of his most important works. This part also pays attention to Leopardi's classical sources and his international reception
- Part 2 =Eugenio Montale' s poetry in relation to the category of modernism, in the framework of the context of 20th-century international poetry. The dialogue and intertextual relationships with the other author in this course, Leopardi, will also be considered.

Initial competences

To have completed the course Italian literature IV or to have acquired the necessary knowledge and skills by other means.

Final competences

- 1 To autonomously discuss specific theoretical aspects (e.g. rhetorics, intertextuality, reception and historicism) related to the study of the Italian literary tradition.
- 2 To independently report on personal reading and research
- 3 Knowledge of key figures and periods of Italian literary history
- 4 Knowledge of the Italian history of ideas
- 5 To situate literary texts in the context of the Italian culture and literary history
- 6 To explain ideological backgrounds and aesthetic programmes on the basis of text analysis
- 7 Advanced knowledge of Italian (B2/C1)
- 8 Command of literary terminology
