Position of the course

Contents

The main aim of this study unit "French for specific purposes: Oral professional communication" is to enhance spontaneous speaking skills in professional contexts. Students are therefore expected to participate in various types of exercises, individual or in team, starting from authentic documents or situations.

Initial competences

The final objectives of the various French study units of the second bachelor year.

Final competences

- 1 the student has acquired general skills, including the ability to think and reason logically, acquire and process information, the ability to reflect critically, creativity and the ability to carry out simple management tasks;
- 2 the student has developed a range of academic strengths such as an enquiring mind and s/he acknowledges the uncertainty, ambiguity and boundaries of knowledge.
- 3 on the basis of text with a higher than average degree of difficulty, the student is able to perform a number of specialized oral language activities such as oral reporting, oral paraphrase and oral translation.
- 4 the student is able to use the heuristic tools relevant for this purpose adequately and judiciously.
- 5 Having a command of French, at C1 level for oral skills (production/interaction) and C2 for listening, of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. [B.1.2; assessed]
- 6 Expressing themselves in French in complex, communicative situations (e.g. oral presentation, debate, negotiation, specialized interaction, oral paraphrase or translation) appropriate to the purpose, target group and media, showing a thorough command of French grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation. [B.6.3, assessed]
- 7 Making accurate choices in French between standard language and substandard forms, recognising language variation and using registers of French accurately. [B.1.3, assessed]
- 8 Having basic knowledge and understanding of several social domains, and applying it to the production of oral text in French. [B.1.8, assessed]
- 9 Adequately interpreting, analyzing and assessing oral communication in French, even when the message, register or accent are specialized or unusual. [B.6.1; assessed]
- 10 Based on acquired competences, acting correctly and tactfully in different communicative situations, based on an understanding of similarities, differences and interactions between the French- and Dutch-speaking world. [B.1.5. ~ B.3.1. ~ B 5.2.; not assessed]
- 11 Based on acquired competences, taking joint responsibility and being a team player. [B.4.1; not assessed]
