Position of the course

In the course "Italian: Specialized Translation" students learn how to deal with highly specialized texts linked to different themes.

The study unit gives students insight into the entire translation process, taking into account the client's instructions, the text genre, the text conventions in the source and target language, theme, language variety and the expectation of the field and the target audience.

References will be made to translate theoretical insights (linked to Translation Studies), and cultural and social background knowledge. Students also learn to critically deal with heuristic tools.
