Spanish, Dutch

Keywords

Listening comprehension, speaking (production and interaction), language practice, Hispanophone culture, vocabulary

Position of the course

In this course unit, students develop the necessary communicative and intercultural strategies to communicate with native speakers from different parts of the Spanish-speaking world. The main focus is on oral skills (both comprehension and production).

Contents

Language mastery

- development of receptive and productive vocabulary knowledge;
- listening comprehension of different Spanish accents;
- fluency in oral interaction and production.

Intercultural communication

- Learning to recognise and deal with cultural differences;
- Practise listening and interrogating what others say and do in an intercultural context;
- Pragmatic differences between Spanish and Dutch, and between varieties of Spanish (e.g. using politeness theory);
- Dimensions of (inter)cultural intelligence.

Initial competences

The final objectives of the different Spanish units of study of the first bachelor year.

Final competences

- 1 Having a command of Spanish at B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for comprehension (listening) and oral skills (production and interaction) [B.1.2, assessed]
