Teaching languages

Dutch, German

Keywords

German; Grammar

Position of the course

The aim of the course unit "German: Grammar C" (D2SC) is to provide students with a more detailed insight into the structure of German, particularly with regard to syntax. It builds on D1SA and D1SB and looks at various aspects of German grammar in more detail.

Contents

The course unit "German: Grammar C" (D2SC) offers a more detailed examination of a number of aspects of German morphology that were discussed in "German: Grammar A" and "German: Grammar B", e.g. several parts of speech. The course unit also expands on various syntactical problems.

Initial competences

The final objectives of the various German course units of the first bachelor year.

Final competences

- 1 Having a command of German grammar regarding specific areas of the syntax of the verb (e.g. use of conjunctive, modal auxiliaries, and use of infinitive and participle) and regarding other areas (such as prepositions, determiners) [B.1.2.; assessed].
- 2 Recognising and independently interpreting grammatical structures of German with specific attention to the solution-focused analysis of grammatical problems inherent to the grammar of German, using appropriate sources with critical reflection [B.1.3.; assessed].
- 3 Having knowledge and understanding of the translation difficulties that may arise when translating texts from Dutch into German, with specific attention to grammatical phenomena [B.1.6.; assessed].
- 4 Having a strong language awareness [B.3.1.; not assessed].
- 5 Based on linguistic knowledge, thinking and reasoning analytically and based on this, solving unfamiliar, complex problems. [B.3.2.; not assessed].

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is unrestricted: the student takes into consideration the conditions mentioned in 'Starting Competences'

Conditions for exam contract

Access to this course unit via an exam contract is unrestricted

Teaching methods

Guided self-study, lecture, seminar

Extra information on the teaching methods

During the seminars, both theory and exercises are alternatively dealt with. The exercises are prepared earlier, and corrected and explained during the seminars. In the translation exercises, considerable time is spent on translation problems between Dutch and German.
