Position of the course

Methods of evaluation and teaching can be subject to change, due to Covid-19. Any changes will be communicated via Ufora.

The course unit "German: Cultural History" (D2CG) is intended to familiarise students with the main eras, figures and events in the history of the German-speaking countries (until 1945), with the aim of acquiring a broad background. It is historical 'Landeskunde' from an applied linguistic perspective.

Exchange students may take up this course unit, for which no prior knowledge of Dutch is required.

Contents

The course unit "German: Cultural History" focuses on political structures and institutions and on cultural development. Its emphasis is on the links between the past and the present. We work e.g. with historical sources and with newspaper articles which professional translators, interpreters or multilingual communicators are likely to come across. The classes are organised linearly. The programme also includes an excursion that is relevant to German cultural history (city tour, museum visit, etc.).

Initial competences

The final objectives of the various German course units of the first bachelor year.

Final competences

- 1 Having a command of German, at B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for productive skills (writing and speaking) and at C1 level for receptive skills (listening and reading) and vocabulary [B.1.2.; assessed].
- 2 Having knowledge and understanding of the cultural-historical and institutional context of the German language area, and approaching current events within the language area from a cultural-historical perspective [B.1.5.; assessed].
- 3 Having basic knowledge and understanding in social areas such as culture, art, politics, economics and law, with specific attention to the historical perspective [B.1.8.; assessed].
- 4 Having a strong language awareness and developing a sensitivity to the similarities, differences and interactions between cultures [B.3.1.; not assessed].
- 5 Critically reflecting on their own thinking and actions [B.3.3.; not assessed].
- 6 Giving short oral presentations on a complex cultural-historical topic and demonstrating a good command of grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation of German [B.6.3.; not assessed].
