Position of the course

The unit of study 'French: Grammar B' aims at:

- Providing the student with an overview of the most important French components of the complex clause;
- Using and extending the knowledge the students acquired during their secondary education and the unit FISA
- Applying grammar to a wider context

Exchange students may take up this course unit, for which no prior knowledge of Dutch is required.

Contents

The unit of study "French: Grammar B" (F1SB) deals with the following topics:

- analysis of the complex clause;
- in-depth study of the use of all the "modes";
- syntax of the indirect question and the (neutral) relative clause;
- use of the noun and the infinitive instead of a clause;
- expression of logical and temporal links between sentences.

Initial competences

Mainstream secondary school-leaving level for French.

Final competences

- 1 the student has developed a range of academic strengths such as an enquiring mind and s/he acknowledges the uncertainty, ambiguity and boundaries of knowledge.
- 2 the students are able to apply basic French grammar rules.
- 3 Having a command of French grammar regarding the syntax of the complex clause (the use of the "modes", the expression of logical and temporal links between sentences, the indirect question, the neutral relative clause, etc.) [B.1.2; assessed]
- 4 Having a command of the French terminology related to the topics mentioned above [B.1.3; assessed]
- 5 Recognising and interpreting French language structures, with close attention to the complex clause and to contrastive aspects compared to Dutch [B.1.3; assessed]
- 6 Recognising and interpreting French language variation, with close attention to grammatical topics [B.1.3; not assessed]
- 7 Thinking and reasoning analytically and creatively and based on this, solving new problems, i.e. known structures in new settings [B.3.2; assessed]
- 8 Having knowledge of relevant dictionaries, reference works and electronic aids, using them adequately and efficiently [B.6.5; not assessed]

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is unrestricted: the student takes into consideration the conditions mentioned in 'Starting Competences'

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract
