Position of the course

This unit of study comprises 4 competences: reading, listening, writing and speaking skills. The knowledge and vocabulary acquired in secondary education is consolidated and extended. Grammar rules are applied in a wider context. The students learn to understand cultural references from the francophone world. The acquired strategies constitute the cornerstones of their future careers in translation, interpreting or communication and are a step in the direction of text analysis at university level.

Exchange students may take up this course unit.

Contents

Oral competences and vocabulary: Vocabulary exercises, oral expression exercises, linguistic analysis of newspaper and magazine articles. Reading of novels. Writing of short texts. Exercises on pronunciation and spelling.

Initial competences

Mainstream secondary school-leaving level for French.

Final competences

- 1 Having a command of French, at least B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for reading, oral skills (production and interaction) and writing skills. [B12; assessed]
- 2 Having a thorough command of general French vocabulary. [B12; assessed]
- 3 Correctly pronouncing French. [B12; assessed]
