Position of the course

This course aims to provide insight into the development of Russian literature from the Middle Ages until the 21st century through (fragments of) literary works of the most important Russian writers and poets.

The student will also be introduced to fundamental concepts for the analysis of poems and narrative prose and will be taught how to use them.

Contents

This overview of the development of Russian literature from the Middle Ages until today is illustrated with fragments from novels, short stories, plays and poems by canonical writers, from the classics such as Puškin, Dostoevskij and Tolstoj to contemporary writers such as Aleksievič.

Particular attention is devoted to the literary and cultural context.

Besides, several longer texts or text fragments in Russian will be subjected to a more thorough literary analysis.
