Position of the course

Spanish Language Practice D (S2PD) is based on competences acquired in "Spanish: Grammar C" (S2SC) and continues to refine the writing and reading skills on topics that are neither too specialised nor technical. Furthermore, attention will be paid to the (passive and active) extension of vocabulary and academic writing.

Contents

The course unit Spanish Language Practice D (S2PD) focuses on general topics such as the correct use of connectors, the adequate use of electronic and other heuristic tools (dictionaries, grammars, websites),...; and more specific topics with exercises on information density, reporting figures/results,... The basic vocabulary acquired during the first bachelor year will be extended in a systematic way. Furthermore, this sub-unit will prepare students to academic writing.

Initial competences

The final objectives of the different Spanish units of study of the first bachelor year.

Final competences

- 1 Having a command of Spanish at B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for reading and writing skills, and vocabulary [B.1.2; assessed]
- 2 Having knowledge and understanding of the use of connectors to achieve relational coherence when writing a text and of the use of different techniques to increase information density in a text [B.1.6; assessed]
- 3 Adequately interpreting, analysing, assessing and correcting written communication [B.6.1; assessed]
- 4 Editing text independently in Spanish and assessing it critically [B.6.2/B.3.3; assessed]
- 5 Expressing oneself in academic writing in Spanish [B.6.3/B.2.3; assessed]
- 6 Having knowledge of relevant dictionaries, reference works and electronic aids, using them adequately and efficiently, and critically evaluating them; displaying intellectual curiosity and a lifelong learning attitude [B.6.5/B.3.4; not assessed]
