Dutch as a foreign language level A1

Position of the course

The goal of "Dutch as a foreign language 1: CEFR A1" is for students to be able to:

- understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type;
- introduce themselves and others and ask and answer questions about personal details, such as where they live, people they know and things they have;
- interact in a simple way, provided the other person talks slowly and clearly and is prepared to help.

This course can only be attended by a limited number of students. Priority is given to students of the Postgraduate program Dutch & Translation and students from exchange programs with the Faculty of Arts and Philosophy.

Contents

In "Dutch as a foreign language 1: CEFR A1" the students practice their:

- listening skills: listening comprehension exercises, audio tapes;
- reading skills: short texts from text book;
- speaking skills: easy conversation exercises;
- writing skills: writing basic texts about easy topics;
- sentence structure.
