Teaching languages

Spanish, English

Keywords

Audiovisual translation, subtitling, dubbing, audio description, voice-over.

Position of the course

The unit of study aims to teach students insights in and practices of audiovisual (multimodal) translation. Students learn how to analyse a source document, identify potential difficulties and assess strategies and resources needed for appropriate reformulation in line with communicative needs. Special attention is paid to the inherent features of each medium and to the changes, both linguistic and cultural, which the scripts have to undergo during the translation process. The students also learn how to use the specialized software.

Contents
