Keywords

Introduction to language and culture; English

Position of the course

'Introduction to Language and Culture: English' (K4IE) aims to help students extend their practical competence in one of the available foreign languages (in this instance, English). Emphasis is placed upon communication skills within an overarching business context e.g. job applications, presentations, meetings, negotiations, etc. with particular attention given to work-place situations that the student may encounter in the near future. Exchange students may take up this course unit, for which no prior knowledge of Dutch is required.

Contents

'Introduction to Language and Culture: English' (K4IE) focuses upon speaking, listening, writing and reading in realistic business situations: telephoning, applying for a job, welcoming a business colleague, explaining a new product, etc. A foundation of grammar is provided alongside relevant exercises. Vocabulary is studied throughout the term of the course. The learning materials are organised thematically.
