

individuals. During the interviews, the students give evidence of the fact that they have creatively processed the content of the reading assignment and of a personal reflection on the relevant social, scientific and/or ethical problems, and of the similarities and differences between cultures;

- reporting on the completed assignment either orally or in writing.

Contents

The study unit "Italian: Intercultural Project" (I3IP) involves:

- an introductory lecture which outlines the objectives and practical modalities of the project, the reading assignment per language and the content of the chapters "Conducting a journalistic interview" and "Interview Article" (see course material) which are to be processed individually;
- completing the reading assignment independently;
- preparing interviews and contacting at least three organisations and/or individuals. Reporting on both tasks to the project supervisor;
- conducting at least three interviews and making a recording of these;
- keeping a log of the completed written and oral activities;
- giving a presentation, showcasing the key results of the tasks;
- an oral exam on the reading assignment.

Initial competences

The final objectives of the various Italian study units of the second bachelor year

Final competences

- 1 having advanced knowledge of the (inter)cultural and institutional backgrounds of the relevant language areas [B.1.5., assessed]
- 2 retrieving, and processing, information from various written, audio-visual and electronic sources [B.2.2., assessed]
- 3 displaying basic knowledge of cultural and institutional backgrounds of the relevant language areas with a view to holding their own in different situations [B.5.2., assessed]
- 4 using a wide range of spoken and written sources in the foreign language for different purposes [B.2.2., assessed]
- 5 understanding, analysing and producing written and oral text from different professional environments (level: C1 European Frame of Reference for one or more skills) [B.1.2., assessed]
- 6 adequately reporting on their own research results in the foreign language, both orally and in writing [B.2.3./B.6.1./B.6.3., assessed]
- 7 applying a permanently critical mind, creativity, scientific thinking and reasoning, particularly to the similarities and differences between cultures [B.1.5./B.3.1./B.3.2., assessed]
- 8 adequately reflecting on social, scientific and ethical problems [B.3.2./B.3.3., assessed]

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is determined after successful competences assessment

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract

Teaching methods

Learning materials and price

reader with relevant articles

References

Course content-related study coaching

Assessment moments

end-of-term assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the first examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic assessment during the second examination period

Oral assessment

Examination methods in case of permanent assessment

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent assessment

not applicable

Extra information on the examination methods

Oral exam (100%)

The students are required to submit their logbooks and give the oral presentation which they prepared (50%). They are also quizzed about the reading assignment (50%).

Second session: same; the students who passed the logbook/presentation section retain their marks (50%) and are only quizzed about the reading assignment (50%).

Calculation of the examination mark

See heading 'explanatory note to the evaluation methods'