Extra information on the examination methods

The group result is based on the quality of the written report and the oral presentation. Peer Assessment: students evaluate each other's work in a team.

Calculation of the examination mark

The group result is based on the quality of the written report and the oral presentation. Peer Assessment: students evaluate each other's work in a team. Based on this peer assessment the titular recalculates the group results per team member. A student not obtaining a peer score of 0,70 will be additionally questioned by the titular. If after this intervention the peer remains below 0,70 the student cannot succeed.
