This course contributes to the realisation of the basis professional teacher competencies as stated in the course description and in the matrix of competencies that can be consulted on www.lerarenopleiding.ugent.be

Contents

The course 'Teaching Methodology: cultural sciences' is starting from different scopes and disciplines focused on an integrated approach of the following contents:
For the theoretical part:

- * situating the curriculum of "cultural sciences" within the context of the secondary education system;
- * the development of cross curricular themes, related to the cross curricular final competences (concerning educating a sense of public responsibility, educating democracy; cultural identity, digital competencies, research competencies, ...) and related to current social themes and questions;
- * current themes and developments related to different joint domains: social, political, economical, philosophical, cultural and scientific fields contents related
- * specific pedagogical-didactical approaches of contents related to the different cultural themes;

In the practical part following topics are considered:

- * The systematic management of questions from the educational field
- * Exercising reflection skills and the set up of action research
- * Active research skills: translating questions from the field into research questions, analysing, designing research, making an action plan, drawing conclusions, translating results into improvements with regard to the teachers own professional development, presenting, reflecting, ...)
- * Step by step realisation of the research competences of students of secondary education

Extra information on the teaching methods

The student-teachers - teachers in training - in a LLO-trajectory have to realize the above-mentioned goals and competences through an alternative portfolio-trajectory. The assignments are elaborated in a manual. There are a number of contact-moments, intervision and coaching. A full LLO-trajectory includes a teaching assignment of minimal 500 hours (this corresponds with teaching assignment of 12 hours a week). Students with an assignment between 200 and 500 hours participate in the LLO-trajectory on a part-time basis. A candidate with a LLO-trajectory of less than 200 hours (this corresponds to a teaching assignment of less than 5h per week) is not admitted to the portfolio-trajectory. The student then has to follow the normal learning-trajectory.
