Position of the course

This course unit contributes to the realisation of the basic teaching competencies and the study programme competencies of Ghent University's Master of Science in Teaching, as set out in the study programme sheet and the competency matrix, which can be consulted on www.ugent.be/educatievmaster

Contents

This course unit introduces the following topics:

- Organisation of the Dutch L2 landscape: institutions and offer (OKAN (i.e. reception classes for non-Dutch speaking newcomers), centres for adult

- education, basic education, higher education);
- Overview of the diversity of the Dutch L2 target groups (newcomers -18, less-educated people, higher-educated people);
- Offer materials Dutch L2 education (textbooks, websites and tools);
- Language acquisition theories;
- Teaching methods for Dutch L2 education (speaking, having conversations, writing, reading and listening).

Mandatory attendance

Attendance in class is mandatory. Since class attendance is mandatory, this course cannot be added to the curriculum after the third week of classes.

Activities related to the internship or Master's theses do not constitute a valid reason for absence from class and must be scheduled at another time.

Initial competences

Students are expected to have sufficient discipline-specific knowledge before starting the course unit. The access requirements for the teaching methodologies are regulated. More information can be consulted via www.ugent.be/educatievemaester.

Students are expected to have a high proficiency in Dutch (level C1 in the CEFR).

Exceptions for exchange students who wish to teach Dutch in a non-native environment (Dutch as a Foreign Language) need to be discussed individually with the teachers.

Final competences

- 1 Students can demonstrate their knowledge of the Dutch L2 landscape (institutions and offer).
- 2 Students can demonstrate and apply their knowledge about the characteristics of the different Dutch L2 target groups (newcomers -18, less-educated people, higher-educated people)
- 3 Students can apply their knowledge about the levels (incl. CEFR) and critically reflect about this
- 4 Students can formulate lesson objectives
- 5 Students can put into practice the theory about teaching methods for Dutch L2 education: they can analyse and adapt existing methods and course material for Dutch L2 education.
- 6 Students can translate their knowledge about language acquisition theories into the development of teaching methods (receptive and productive skills) and into the classroom.

Conditions for credit contract

Access to this course unit via a credit contract is determined after successful competences assessment

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract
