Situering

This course is one of the eighteen research seminars that constitute the core of the master programme. Depending on initial qualifications, students enrol for three or five such research seminars

Inhoud

The lecturers' expertise allows students to conduct research into philosophical questions regarding various aspects of mathematical practice (including (visual) evidence, the role of diagrams, explanation, aesthetic aspects and argumentation). Philosophical questions on explanation and causality in physics and genetics can also be chosen as research topics. For students enrolled in the research master detailed information is available on the Ufora-site 'ReMa Philosophy General Information'.

Begincompetenties

Knowledge of philosophy of science at intermediate level.
Competent in philosophical writing and argumentation.

Eindcompetenties

- 1 Ability to formulate original and innovative research problems based on the duly founded insight into the internationally recognised state-of-the-art in the philosophy of mathematics and the natural sciences.
- 2 Ability to work out original solutions to the selected research problems, and argue for them clearly and convincingly.
- 3 Ability to deepen one's knowledge of the philosophy of mathematics and the natural sciences independently.
- 4 Ability to report on research orally (for academic peers) in a clearly-understood manner.
- 5 Having a work attitude that allows to function in research teams and that guarantees integrity of the research.
